Rustburg Beats Raiders 3-0

The Rustburg Red Devils got excellent pitching from Robert Garner last Thursday and blanked the Appomattox Raiders 3-0 in a Seminole District baseball game.

Garner allowed the Raiders six scattered hits and got power from teammate Mike Floyd who had two of Rustburg's five hits and one of them being a two run homer in the seventh. Rustburg took a 1-0 lead when they pushed a run across in the fourth inning.

Jimmy Chandler led the Raiders in hitting with two hits. Mike Gallier, Ricky Garrett, Steve Almond and Dennis Wilkerson had the other Raider hits. The Raiders had runners on base late in the game but could not stage a rally to get them in for a score.

The loss gave the Raiders a 5-3 mark for the season.

STONEWALL

"Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life." Matt. 7:14

Mrs. Bob Harris was the dinner guest Sunday of her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Nina Caldwell and Mrs. Elsie Caldwell. They visited the Jordon family at Concord in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Wheeler visited Mrs. Fannie Ireson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wheeler in Roanoke Thursday. Never have the dogwood been so pretty.

Mrs. Nina Caldwell and Mrs. Elsie Caldwell are so grateful for so many of their friends who called to see them last week. Good friends are worth so much more than money.

The Wheelers visited Mr. and Mrs. Bob Worley Sunday evening.

The movie and talk made by Miss McAden was greatly appreciated that was at Hebron Sunday night. It gives us a better understanding of Africa's people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Alvis spent the week end with the Matthews at Orange, Va., last week.

Last Sunday they were guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Alvis in Lynchburg; also Mr. and Mrs. John Alvis, III and Rusty.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stratton and boys will move into a trailor on his farm until he gets his home built. See Stonewall is growing.

Mr. Wallace Bondurant is doing fine and will soon be home. So many visited him last week.

Another Big Gobbler!

If Friday was as goods day for cooking as it was for hunting, the Elmo Mann's (above) are in good luck. Elmo W. Mann (right) of Appomattox brought down this 19 pound, 12 ounce gobbler early Friday morning. Mrs. Mann is at the left. Numerous reports of good hunting are being heard, and the Manns have proof that gobblers grow big in Appomattox county.

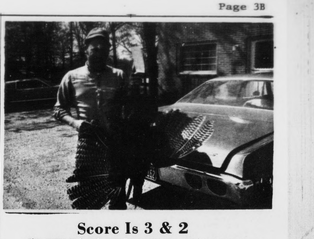
Human Growth Spring Meeting Sat., May 6

Job training and the selection of professions will be a main topic for discussion at the spring meeting of the Mid-Atlantic States Chapter of Human Growth Foundation, set for Sat., May 6, 1972 at the Civitan Building on Elba Street, Durham, N. C.

Special guests will be Nelson Parker, Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor at the Rand Rehabilitation Center, U.N.C. and Ron Alford, Vocational Counselor, Chapel Hill High School.

The meeting will begin at 11:00 a.m. with an enumeration of the services available through vocational rehabilitation programs and discussion of vocational programs available in Virginia. Informal discussion will follow lunch at the Duke Graduate Students' Dormitory Cafeteria.

The needs of children and adults who are small than normal size are a particular concern of Human Growth Foundation.



Score Is 3 & 2

The score is 3 and 2 for Dewey Maddox (above), Route 4, Appomattox, who on his third year of hunting for spring turkeys made a second kill this year bringing down this good size gobbler, 17 lbs. 14 ounces. The nice surprise about this year's turkey hunt is that he brought down a turkey in the same location last year.
